

Grants in the education sector in 2016

Have collected the best grant program for international and domestic organizations, which can be a part of the Russian teachers. All programs are open, submit your entry now. Just remember to study carefully the conditions of participation.

---

Program teaching excellence and achievement TEA

Deadline: 15 APR 2016

The time and duration of the event: spring/autumn 2017, 6 weeks

Source: youtube.com

The professional development program for secondary school teachers from 55 countries, including Russia.

Program Teaching Excellence and Achievement Program (TEA) is held annually. 170 participants who passed all stages of selection, will visit the United States consisting of two groups in spring or autumn. The organizer of the program — Council on international researches and exchanges (IREX), and financial support is provided by the Bureau of educational and cultural programs of the U.S. Department of state.

During the intensive six-week professional internship in a US University program participants will: — specialized course in pedagogy and their subject area;
— specialized course on technologies of teaching;
internship in an American high school;
and will also take part in extra-curricular activities of host schools.

In the program can participate all teachers with at least 5 years of professional experience and teaching in secondary schools of Russia the following disciplines:

- English;
- Public discipline;
- Natural Sciences;
- Mathematics;
- Special (correctional) education on these subjects.

Candidates must be citizens of Russia, good know English (at least 450 points on the TOEFL) and have the intention of teaching in high school after completing the program.

The selection of participants is carried out in 2 stages: the semi-finalists are interviewed in Moscow and pass the exam in English, the finalists are approved by IREX no later than October 2016. The internship is fully paid by the organizer, including travel, accommodation and daily expenses.

Read more about the program

---

The Fulbright program for University lecturers

Deadline: 15 Jun 2016

The time and duration of the event: August 2016 — January 2018 assignment service, 5 months

A short video about the history and activities of the Fulbright program (in English).

Source: youtube.com

Grants the Fulbright scholar program for University teachers (The Fulbright Faculty Development Program, FFDP) is available on a competitive basis for the development of new or improvement of already existing course to a Russian University in the framework of the discipline.

Grants given to University professors not older than 39 years. The finalists are flying to the USA group in August 2017.

The program begins with a three-day seminar, during which will be studied the theoretical aspects and techniques of curriculum development in the United States. After the seminar, all participants went to universities in the USA, which are selected for each finalist, given the stated disciplines.

During the program, participants will:
— to develop their training courses and plans;
— to attend lectures and seminars;

- work in laboratories and libraries;
- to participate in conferences and roundtables.

Upon completion of the program each participant must submit a draft training course at the concluding workshop, to be held in mid-January 2018 at the Institute of international education in New York.

To enter the contest you need to speak English at a good level (at least 80 points on iBT TOEFL) and have not less than 3 years continuous service teaching at the University. Recruitment of participants is conducted in two stages.

Read more about the program

---

The Fulbright program for young teachers of English

Deadline: June 1, 2016

The time and duration of the event: August 2016 — May 2018, 9 months

The multinational composition of the participants of the FLTA—2015

Source: cslc.nd.edu

The main goal of the program is to improve teaching skills and cultural exchange between the United States and other countries.

The participants will be distributed to universities and colleges in the US to work as instructors or assistant professors of the Russian language.

Activity, provided that the programme:

- teaching of Russian language and culture of their country up to 20 hours per week.
- study at least two subjects per semester, one of which must relate to U.S. Studies (American Studies), and others should be associated with the specialization of "teaching English";
- joint conferences and seminars for exchange of experience.

The program begins in August with a mandatory week-long orientation in the United States. After that participants went to universities and colleges, where they were distributed.

The participants will actively interact with representatives of the local community to organize groups for the study of speech, language clubs, to conduct extracurricular activities and round tables to familiarize the audience with the culture and traditions of their country.

Program participants must work with teachers of English or study at a higher education institution in the last year, specialty "teacher of English".

Read more about the program

---

Grants of the Fund "Russian world"

Applications will be accepted without restrictions by date

Source: tvoyaistoria.ru

The Russian Fund, established in 2007, annually distributes grants to implement projects aimed at the study and popularization of Russian language and culture.

Cash is awarded on a competitive basis, Russian and foreign non-profit organizations, and individual citizens or stateless persons.

Provides the following target areas:

- learning Russian language;
- training and retraining of teachers of Russian language and literature;
- creation of new educational-methodical complexes, manuals, textbooks and other publications to assist teachers of Russian language and literature, studying Russian language;
- development of multimedia educational resources and systems of remote training in Russian language and literature;
- establishment and support of Russian-language schools;
- conducting competitions and contests in Russian language and literature, conducting linguistic research, forums, conferences, events, organization of media projects, etc.

The main condition to receive the grant — the practical usefulness and social value of the project. The amount of funding and duration is not regulated, but these conditions should be carefully justified in the application.

Read more about the project

---

Prize of St. Petersburg Government in the field of higher and secondary professional education

Deadline: March 9, 2016

Source: gov.spb.ru

The contest was established this year, focused on the development of the educational potential of St. Petersburg and the creation of effective learning technologies.

The project involves the presentation of twenty annual premiums in the amount of 300 000 rubles each.

Prizes are awarded in the following categories:

- development of innovative activities in educational institution;
- organizational solutions to improve the quality of training of specialists;
- scientific achievements that improve the quality of training specialists of higher qualification;
- educational-methodical support of educational process, aimed at improving the quality of training specialists;
- integration of education, science and industry;
- in the field of educational work with students, development of their professional skills;
- for outstanding achievements in the field of training of creative workers for organizations of culture and art.

The competition is open to citizens of the Russian Federation of workers of educational and scientific organizations, industrial enterprises, innovative-technological centers and technology parks located in St. Petersburg, as well as teams of up to 3 persons.

Read more about the program